24th June 2006

5 KNUTS

DAILY PROPHET

Editor: Barnabas Cuffe

Bringing You Wizarding News Since 1005

EXCLUSIVE

Interview with Up-and-coming quidditch star on upside defence tactics!

SEE PAGE EIGHT FOR MORE DETAILS!

FREE SPECTOR SPEC'S

WITH THANKS TO LUNA LOVEGOOD EDITOR OF THE QUIBBLER

REGULARS

★ WEDNESDAYS MAGIZOOLOGY COLLUM

QUIDDITCH TALK

CLASSIFIED ADS ★

WITCH WEEKLY PRESENTS HOW TO VANISH PIMPLES IN SECONDS

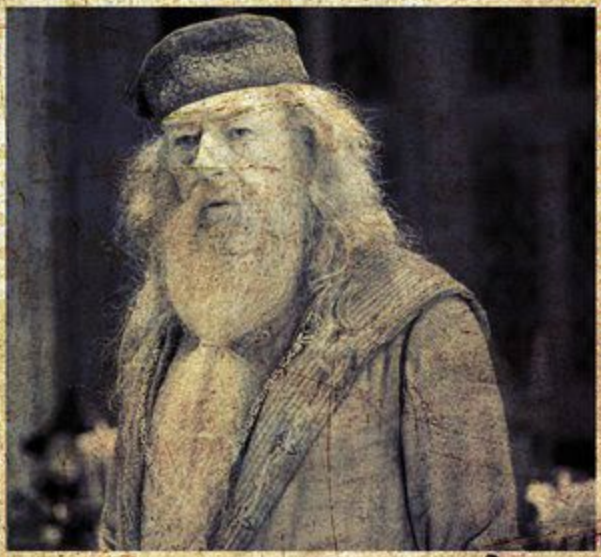
EXPERTS SECTION

Medical Queries,
Emotional Dilemmas,
Legal Problems,
Everyday magical problems.

ALBUS DUMBLEDORE

ARTICAL WRITTEN BY ELPHIAS DOGE

TEN YEARS TO THE DAY



NEW QUIDDITCH LEAUGE ANALYSIS

ARTICLE BY GINNY WEASLEY

HOLYHEAD HARPIES ATTRACT THOUSANDS

The Holyhead Harpies are a Quidditch team that plays in the British and Irish Quidditch League. The team is based in the town of Holyhead which is located in the northwest of Wales. The team was founded in 1203, making them the second oldest team in the League. The Harpies playing robes are dark green with a gold talon emblazoned on the chest. They are unique among Quidditch teams in that they only hire women to play for them.

Professional United is the Quidditch team Oliver Wood joins as a reserve after graduation from Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. They were founded in 1461 making them the oldest team in the British and Irish Quidditch League. Their robes are navy blue with gold and white trimmed golden balls. Their location is Ponders on the Hill. They have won the Quidditch Cup twenty times, the last time being in 1994. Their Quidditch pitch is Ponders Pitch. Their Quidditch kit was designed by Madame Hooch. Their Quidditch balls are made by Slant Balls. These balls are made of cowhide, the balls are made of cowhide, the balls are made of cowhide. Their Quidditch balls are made of cowhide. Their Quidditch balls are made of cowhide. Their Quidditch